Savannah's owner ordered a home on the water for his children. Ted Hood Design Group created this remarkably elegant answer to that brief. So often an afterthought, the children's quarters are adjoined by a full nanny's cabin. Yet this remains a very grow up yacht with furniture by David Linley and fabrics by Ralph Lauren. From the saloon through every cabin to the impressive owner's suite, Savannah has a warmly sophisticated environment in which to entertain or relax and contemplate the pleasure of the voyage.
